Time	Commentary
70:00	AUS has won it second straight match 2-0, this time over KOR, thanks to two second half goals. IMISON was the star, keeping a clear sheet despite KOR having 13 PC's to AUS's 1. The win moves AUS equal with the NED on two wins, while KOR remains at the foot of the table with GER.
69:21	IMISON stands tall again to save a KOR PC
64:46	Another KOR PC
61:40	Goal A terrible mistake by KOR's GK, MOON, has allowed AUS to score its second goal. MOON kicked a ball she could have left straight to HUDSON, who made no mistake in improving her angle then cracking her shot past MOON
60:37	Another corner, another save for IMISON
60:03	CHO returns to the field as KOR win another PC
59:27	IMISON saves well after quick shot from Ko Woon OG
57:46	KOR PC is cleared, and HUDSON breaks setting up Megan RIVERS in the circle, only for MOON to come out and clear up the danger
56:15	Incident KOR's Hye Sook CHO is yellow carded for a bad tackle on HUDSON
53:32	Rebecca SANDERS clears well for AUS to break
52:48	KOR win PC after soft foot from Emily HALLIDAY
51:25	KOR testing AUS defence as they press hard for an equalizer
48:55	Two more KOR corners, however one should have been a PS after a deliberate foot
47:35	KOR PC after hit an AUS players foot
44:27	KOR PC well saved again by IMISON
40:43	Goal AUS opened the scoring courtesy of Karen SMITH. SMITH's attempted trap on a PC came unstuck, but she more than made up for it by skillfully beating two KOR defenders before hammering her shot under KOR GK, Young Hui MOON
39:45	The match is struggling to reach great heights, as both teams struggle with fluency
36:05	Lengthy time out as Eun Yong CHOI is down injured. Play resumes after CHOI hobbles off
35:01	The crowd is hoping for an improved display from both teams as the second half begins in cold and dreary conditions

35:00	The lacklustre first half has come to an end, with the scores still locked 0-0. IMISON has done well in goal for AUS, stopping a number of KOR shots early. Neither coach would have been very happy with their respective team in a scrappy display.
33:12	AUS`s Angie SKIRVING is having a bad run, repeatedly turning it over
30:56	KOR PC, cleared by AUS
25:12	Shot by AUS`s Kate HOLLYWOOD is deflected wide for a long corner
22:02	Both teams are continually turning the ball over softly
20:01	AUS continue to get caught out at the back with lazy marking
19:08	Sarah TAYLOR threatening for AUS in their attacking circle
17:46	IMISON saves again, this time from a drag flick
17:10	Poor turnover leads to Nikki HUDSON breaking forward for AUS, but KOR clear, break and get a PC of their own
13:55	Good double save from IMISON keeps AUS level
08:21	KOR counter quickly but good keeping by Rachel IMISON helps to keep KOR out
06:11	AUS slow to get into the match
03:28	KOR PC
00:01	AUS and KOR get underway, with KOR looking to get its first points on the board, while AUS are aiming for a second win
